Mini Camp

Dates: July 5-7

Rate: $189 youth,
$49 parent

Grades: Entering 1-3

Designed for young campers, Mini Camp is the perfect introduction to Tall Timber for your child. This safe, fun, structured, low-key camp provides an opportunity to experience nature, campfires, crafts, games, silliness, Bible stories, and 2 nights in your cabin. Mini campers and our friendly staff are the only ones at Tall Timber during your stay, intentionally creating an encouraging atmosphere for our newest guests. If your child is not quite ready to leave the nest for two nights without you, we have limited space for parents to join for an extra fee. This camp is shorter, more structured, less crowded, and geared toward younger campers. It is recommended for first-time campers or those still a bit hesitant to leave home for too long.

Primary Camp

Dates: July 2-5

Rate: $269,
add $20 for String Camp

Grades: Entering 2-5

These four fun-filled days offer an experience for young campers that features a morning cycle of nature, crafts, singing, and Bible-based activities. Afternoon options include horses, rock wall, hikes, crafts, water slide, and more. Evenings bring great games and silly skits.

Note: Primary Camp is longer and higher energy than Mini Camp, and recommended for campers with more experience and/or confidence being away from home.

String Camp Option: violin or ukulele lessons are offered through Kaleidoscope Academy, a ministry of First Presbyterian Church of Snohomish for an extra fee.

Order a beginner ukulele for JUST $30 when you register by June 15th!

Pro Camp

Dates: July 23-28
Rate: $399
Grades: Entering 9-12

Pro Camp is a week unlike any other at Tall Timber. Mornings offer an opportunity for hands-on lessons from experts representing a wide variety of trades, talents, and professions. Campers learn from the best while exploring adventures, multimedia, arts, and skilled trades. We wrestle with why we worship on one day yet often our faith comes in second on the other six days. How can faith and work intersect? We explore this question and more. Afternoons and evenings feature more traditional camp experiences such as games, crafts, archery, climbing, swimming, skits, and speakers, ending each day with a slightly more laid back atmosphere than our usual camps.

Summer Family Camp

Dates: June 18-24
Rate: email for details,
registrar@talltimber.org
All Ages Welcome

Family camp has something for everyone! Experience the ropes course, canoeing, rock climbing, singing praise songs around the campfire, horses, s'mores by the river, and hiking!

For the kids: Quality. Educational. Fun. These three words describe our kids' programs. Adults can relax knowing the kids are having a great time learning about Christ with our program staff. Age-based programs occur during adult teaching time (babysitting is provided). Additional afternoon and evening babysitting can be arranged to allow adults special time together.

For the adults: Be inspired. Recreate. Relax. We bring inspiring Christian speakers to lead sessions. Whether staying for half a week or a whole week, we know you will be blessed by this time away with your family to disconnect in order to reconnect.

Work Weekend

Dates: May 26-29
Rate: Donation
All Ages Welcome

Since 1957, Tall Timber has had a tradition of cleaning up camp and taking on projects with one another, all with the common purpose of preparing camp for another summer of campers. It is much the same today.

Please take a moment to fill out our online form: We will use this information to place you and your team with a project that matches your skills and interests with the current needs of camp.

www.talltimber.org/adult-family-calendar/work-weekend

The projects never end as we seek to improve camp or repair things that need some TLC. We welcome you to come and work, worship, meet new people, and share life together in this stunning and special place.

SERVICE EXPEDITIONS

For more information, visit www.talltimber.org/service-expeditions

Previously known as Co'hr, Service Expeditions are designed for youth groups who want to serve locally and experience an exhilarating, professionally planned, guided outdoor adventure. This camp is an "a la carte" experience that you and your youth leader craft. Pick your service, adventure, and Session 1, 2, or 3, then come experience your Service Expedition from base camp at Tall Timber.

For over 25 years, part of the vision of Tall Timber has been to help prepare people for local and worldwide service. Our Service Expeditions are a natural outgrowth of that purpose, and we are committed to the belief that a heart for service begins with an awareness of the needs around us. Through our Service Expedition program, we help you design a unique mission experience for your group, combining meaningful local service projects with our excellent team building and adventure activities. Spend a few days growing as a team through serving, then learn more about yourselves and the world we live in through the awesome powers of fellowship through adventure. Our staff will handle all of the details: food, lodging, logistics, coordination, evening activities, and anything else you need. We've got the details covered; sign your group up today!
