Using Today's Challenges to Find Tomorrow's Ministry Opportunities

Thursday, May 27, 2010

Thousand Pines Camp and Conference Center
Crestline, CA

As ministries continue to deal with the ramifications of the "Great Recession," opportunities abound for leaders and organizations that will refocus their purpose, reengage their staffs and their supporters, and rethink the way they do ministry now and into the future.

Don't miss this FREE interactive workshop for CEOs/Executive Directors of Christian camps and conference centers. This information-packed 2-hour session will focus on:

Getting on Track: Building and Living Your Monster Mission
Getting Noticed: Creating a Visible Message and Organization
Getting the Resources You Need: The Fundraising Mastery Model

Coffee and rolls will be served at 8:30 a.m. The workshop will go from 9:00 – 11:00 a.m., with time to dialogue with other directors following the session.
