HOSTED AT:

CHRISTIAN CAMP
& CONFERENCE
ASSOCIATION
MID-ATLANTIC SECTION
midatlantic.ccca.org

Wild Faith:

{ We are transformed in wild places. Important and profound revelation occurs between God and humans when we are outside our familiar, insulated, comfortable, predictable lives. Wild places are critical as a context for transformation in our journey. }

Join us as we explore the theme “Wild Faith”. This combined with great worship, spiritual refreshment, encouragement and top-notch workshops make this a must attend event.

-Jim Payne, President, Mid-Atlantic Section, CCA

Speaker

RICHARD DAHLSTROM

Richard Dahlstrom has been the Senior Pastor of Bethany Community Church in Seattle since 1996. The work has grown from one location and 300 people, to six locations in the Puget Sound region and over 3500 people. The teaching pastors from each location study together weekly and preach from the same text, allowing Richard to invest in a new generation of young leaders. He teaches globally with Torchbearer Missionary Fellowship and is the author of The Colors of Hope, which was selected by Christianity Today as one of the best books of 2011. Married for 37 years with three grown children, he and his wife spend most of their free time skiing and hiking.

Worship Leader

MATT GOSS

Born in Lewisburg and raised in Jonestown and Lancaster, Matt grew up in a very musical family and started ministering through music at a young age. They toured as “The Goss Family” and often sang and performed in churches across Pennsylvania. A big kid at heart with a dry humor, and a constant ability to make people laugh, Matt’s quick wit is the source of lots of laughs around the office and in practices.

Matt earned his two-year music certificate from Berklee College of Music in Boston. He has served as LCBC’s worship leader since May of 1999. Matt shares that his philosophy of ministry is “to prepare the way for the Holy Spirit to open hearts and minds to genuine worship through the arts.” He is an accomplished vocalist, pianist, guitarist, bassist, drummer, tubist, composer, arranger, choir director and, of course, worship leader.

Board Seminar

NATE PARKS

Executive Director at Berea

WALKING AND WORKING THE JOURNEY TOGETHER IN THE EXECUTIVE SUITE

Have you ever speculated or pondered what is going on in the mind of your Board? Similarly, have you ever wondered what your Executive Director is thinking? Any organization with a worthy mission will be fraught with enormous difficulties. The pressures endured by the Executive and the Board, at times, are tremendous. This “pressure cooker” is the nature of the beast and yet it is in this space of ministry where so much good, or damage can be done to the organization and ultimately the mission. The working and personal relationships at this table can be incredible and need to be exceptional in order to secure the mission. How do we collaborate together to secure the mission? How do we steward the organization with appropriate accountability on both sides of the aisle? What do you wish the Executive or Board members knew about each other’s responsibilities? It is about the mission! In this seminar you will walk away with actionable principles for all relationships and issues in the Executive Suite to keep the organization fruitful.
