A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the CCCA/TX Cabinet, I would like to welcome you to the 2017 Sectional Conference! Our theme this year is Sent. As we look at the many aspects of serving in Christian camping sometimes we need an opportunity to pause, soak in the Word of God, and find encouragement with fellow camping leaders while gaining practical knowledge and information to take back with you. What tools do you need as you prepare for your ministry journey? What areas do you need the Lord to renew? Our prayer is that during this conference you will experience the Lord, gain practical insight, and the applicable tools that are needed as we are sent back to the frontlines of ministry.

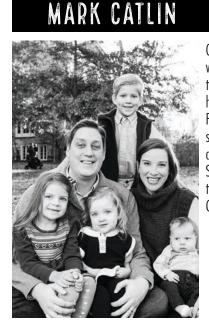

God is making all things new and He uses a threefold movement to complete His redemptive work. He gathers people to Himself, renews relationship with them, and sends them on mission. Let's prepare for the mission and get ready to be "Sent!"

Brian Anderyon

CCCA/TX President

FROM LAKEVIEW

At Lakeview, we like to say what happens here changes the world! We expect nothing less this week, and hope your prayers about what God will do in and among us are just as big. We are especially glad to get to host you this year, as we are celebrating Lakeview's 20th anniversary. Welcome! We hope you enjoy your time as a camp guest for a change, as you lean in to the very heart and presence of God in this place.

Originally from Birmingham, AL, Mark now lives and works in Princeton, NJ, with his wife, Kimberly, and their children: Sam, Molly, Sara, and Andrew. Mark has served in ministry in Boston, Wake Forest, and Princeton, usually focusing on teaching and discipling students. He is in the final stages of completing his doctoral work in the study of the Old Testament at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Now, through the Novum Institute, Mark is working to equip Christians to pursue all of life as ministry.

JONATHAN & EMILY MARTIN

Jonathan & Emily are singer-songwriters and worship leaders that met and started their ministry "The Word in Worship" in Nashville, TN. Believing that the scriptures are literally the words of God, therefore powerful, helpful and beautiful, Jonathan & Emily have a passion for creating music rooted in and filled with the Word as a powerful resource for personal and corporate worship, everyday discipleship, scripture memory, and encouragement for the body of Christ. Over the past 5 years, they've released 3 EPs and travel full-time (along with their son Judah) sharing their songs and leading worship for churches and groups all over the country in hopes of encouraging the body of Christ and spreading the gospel through their craft.
