

DON GOEHNER

Board Coach
CCCA THRIVING BOARDS
2017 Cohort

DON D. GOEHNER is the founder and president of The Goehner Group, located in San Jose, Calif. This organization, established in 1990, seeks to assist ministry organizations in achieving their mission, vision and goals through stewardship, marketing and leadership consultation.

Don has conducted numerous workshops and retreats for organizational boards and has been a presenter at numerous national and regional conferences and conventions on a variety of topics. Don served as a faculty member of the Meyer Institute for Stewardship Leadership of the Christian Stewardship Association. For five years he wrote a column on boardsmanship in the Christian Camp and Conference Association magazine.

Prior to starting The Goehner Group, Don served for eight years as a college administrator and director of development at two Southern California private colleges. He was responsible for major development projects, including the first capital campaign in the history of Westmont College in Santa Barbara. His professional career includes youth ministry, adjunct faculty in higher education, lay leadership, administration, fund development and consultation, all with ministry-related organizations.

Don received his bachelor of arts in Sociology from Westmont College and his MBA from Pepperdine University, with an emphasis in entrepreneurship. He is a trustee at Westmont College, a former president of the Westmont Alumni Association, and was named "Alumnus of the Year" in 2010. He has also served as a member of the Young Life Capernaum National Committee and was chairperson for five years.

Don is married to Caryl, and has three children and three grandchildren. His book, My Journey to Hope (2010), is the account of his grief journey after the sudden death of his first wife Bev in 2006.
