

“The Greenship Challenge”

Larry Birch

Chief Operating Officer

Viridian Eco Solutions, Corp.

Viridianecosolutions.com

larryb@viridianecosolutions.com

707-396-6451

“The Greenship Challenge”

- A. Is God the original Greenie? Greenness of God Article at :
<http://www.answersingenesis.org/creation/v15/i1/greenness.asp>
- a. Everything He made gave Him pleasure (Gen 1:31)
  - b. Our God treats His creation like a father and we are His managers of it.
- B. Is the emerging green Movement a fad or is it here to stay?
- a. Not just the hippies any more
  - b. The world has set the course
  - c. Governments have begun to mandate it
  - d. Whole industries have picked up the mantel
  - e. Fundamentals of homerun
- C. Are we as leaders in Christian camping and conferences taking advantage of the unique position of becoming the natural leaders in green stewardship?
- a. God has called us to manage His work resources
  - b. God has blessed us with wonderful natural resources
  - c. God always provides for His will (think outside the box)
- D. Can we creatively use this opportunity of “greenship” to build bridges to our neighbors and our whole community in order to impact and increase those we serve and may serve?
- a. Government agencies
  - b. Schools (Environmental Sciences and Outdoor Education)
  - c. Eco adventures (Use what God has placed in your hands)
- E. Next steps to cost effective planning and implementation of greening our ministries.
- a. Define “green” or the new and deeper word: _____
  - b. Listen to the things that are important in your area
  - c. Research possibilities (what is our area wanting)
  - d. Identify areas that over lap
  - e. Define tangible Goals and objectives
  - f. Prioritize
  - g. Establish a timeline to implement change