

New Business Member Benefit

As a CCCA Business Member in good standing, you now can contribute to the Christian Camping Resource Library. We invite you to provide helpful articles that will be of benefit to our member camps. The articles must be helpful and educational, but not advertorial in nature. Your business will be recognized by the credit given as the author of the piece.

Maybe you have an expertise in a skill members need to know, or you might have tips for maintaining a camp property or running a conference center. It might be about the facilities, the grounds, programming, foodservice or any other area of operation at a camp. Use your expertise to benefit CCCA members and help build your brand.

Guidelines:

- The article must be no longer than two pages in length.
- Submit your article as a MS Word doc only.
- Use AP style formatting.
- You are responsible to edit and proof prior to submission.
- It must be submitted by email to Bryan Bailon at bbailon@ccca.org.
- The article cannot promote your business or your product(s). It must be a helpful and educational piece with the sole purpose of providing useful information for our member camps.
- Please make sure to include a short bio of the author that also includes the author's name and company's name and website, followed by "CCCA Business Member."
- There are no limits to the number of articles you may submit.
- CCCA reserves the right to decline the content submitted.

Once your document has been submitted, it will be reviewed within five business days and those submissions meeting our criteria will be made available to all CCCA members via our Library Search.

We look forward to including your articles in the Christian Camping Resource Library.