OUR FLAGSHIP PUBLICATION

Since 1958, camp/conference professionals have looked to our association magazine to keep them on the leading edge of the Christian outdoor adventure and hospitality industry. InSite, CCCA's award-winning flagship publication, is the perfect place for your advertising to reach key decision-making staff with information about your products and services.

The bimonthly publication—redesigned in February 2018—shines light on a variety of issues, with articles written by Christian camp/conference leaders and other experts. Each issue tackles practical and philosophical camp/conference-related concerns. The attractive design and avid, engaged readership make this publication the perfect backdrop for your message.

Who Reads InSite?

CCCA members rank InSite magazine as one of their top seven most important reasons for being a member. The magazine's more than 5,300 hard copy recipients (both members and non-members) and a growing number of digital readers are primarily career, full-time professionals in hundreds of Christian camps and conference centers. They include professionals at private camps, agency camps, and hundreds of other national and local youth and adult organizations representing significant purchasing power.

Regular columns offer insights about:

- programming
- finance
- foodservice
- board governance
- facilities
- legal issues
- marketing
- emerging leaders
- hospitality
- research

Circulation

Circulation of InSite is more than 5,300, published six times per year and mailed via periodicals rate. Subscriptions are included with membership in CCCA. Non-member subscriptions are $29.95 ($39.95 foreign); single copies $4.99 each.

Additional Promotion

Your ad placement is highlighted by a listing in our CCCA InSite Advertisers Index display ad, noting your company or organization's name, the page on which your ad appears and your website address.

Special Positions

All position stipulations appearing on insertion orders will be considered as requests. Positions will be guaranteed only after consulting publication as to availability. For all guaranteed positions, add 10% to space rates on page 6.

Guaranteed placement of your ad only occurs for full-page advertisers. Layout complications makes it impossible for us to guarantee that fraction-of-a-page ads will not appear on the same page as a competitor. We will make an effort to create space between competitors, but cannot guarantee it.

Digital Ads Only

InSite is created completely electronically and is available in digital and PDF formats.

PDF Format

Ads must be submitted in Adobe Acrobat high-resolution PDF format.

Digital Specifications

Images must be saved in grayscale or CMYK mode and be at least 300 ppi at 100 percent. Do not use RGB, index color, JPEG, LZW compressed graphics, or files saved as QuarkXPress EPS files.

Cancellations and Changes

Cancellations as well as changes in insertion orders must be made in writing (email bbailon@ccca.org) and may not be made after the reservations deadline.

Preferred or special positions are not cancelable after 60 days before reservations closing date. For policies on cover cancellations contact the business relations manager.

Liability/Changes

The publisher assumes no liability for errors in advertiser name, page number reference or website address listed in each issue's Advertisers Index. Advertisers will be billed a minimum of $75 per hour for any additional costs involving extra ad preparation, such as type modifications or corrections, and/or design changes.

Color

All ad sizes include four-color process at no additional charge.

Bleeds

Full-page bleed is no additional charge. (Bleeds unavailable for other sizes.)

Discounts and Commissions

Rates are subject to change without advance notice; contracts in effect at the time of rate change will be protected for two months.

Advertising must be inserted within 12 months of first insertion to earn the multiple edition ad placement discounts. Advertisers will be short-rated if within a 12-month period they do not use the space upon which their billings have been based. Advertisers will be rebated if they use sufficient space within a 12-month period to qualify for a lower rate than at which they have been billed.

Business Member

Discount

Advertisers supporting CCCA through direct, annual business membership may deduct 5% from advertising rates shown. (Business member fees for the 2021–2022 fiscal year are $619.)

Commissions

Commission to recognized advertising agencies—those having a separate and distinct business identity, whether in-house or outside—is 10% of gross billing of display space. There is no commission on artwork, special handling charges or discounts. Payment must be received in the CCCA office within 30 days of invoice date.

New advertisers and unlisted agencies must establish credit by sending full payment with first insertion order.

Advertiser must pay directly to InSite magazine all charges for advertisements placed by its appointed agency if the agency defaults in paying for those advertisements.

All discounts will be forfeited on all unpaid invoices over 30 days from invoice date. This includes agency commissions and business member discounts.

Publisher's Copy Protective Clause

Advertisers and advertising agencies assume liability for all content (including text, representation and illustrations) of advertisements printed, and assume responsibility for any claims arising therefrom made against the publisher.

CCCA is a nonprofit organization committed to furthering Christian camping. CCCA provides limited space for advertising opportunities, services and products to advance the cause of Christian camping. CCCA is not responsible for the claims made by its advertisers and reserves the right to select or reject any advertising, in the sole discretion of CCCA, for any or no reason.

Exhibiting

Christian Camp and Conference Association's annual national conference is a relationship-driven event for leaders serving in Christian camp, conference and retreat center ministries. It is historically the most creative, well-attended event for those involved in camp and conference ministry. Camp/conference leaders come to the national conference eager to view the many varied products/services on display and plan for the new year ahead. Eighty-seven percent of CCCA members operate year-round facilities.

Exhibiting at the national conference can give you valuable face time with decision makers. On average, executive directors attended three out of the last five CCCA National Conferences and Exhibitions. But executive directors aren't the only ones who attend this conference. Other key influencers attend as well: board members, program directors, foodservice directors and other decision-making staff.

Advertising

To further your promotional impact, consider placing a display ad in the national conference program. Contact CCCA's Business Relations Manager for more information.

Sponsorship

When you support CCCA through sponsorship, you position your company as an industry leader. You further your exhibiting investment and increase your visibility while helping your company stand out—and above—your competitors.

CCCA offers several sponsorship opportunities. Depending on the sponsorship you select, you can gain valuable added exposure through on-site signage, the printed conference program and more.

CHRISTIAN CAMPING'S BIG EVENT

Flint & Steel E-newsletter

This heads-up member service offers association bulletins, industry-related regional and national news, statistics and societal trends, new product and service information, and a brief devotional thought. It's communicated in a timely email broadcast, launched on the first and third Tuesdays of every month. The e-newsletter is sent to nearly 7,000 recipients. Flint & Steel Classifieds are part of the Flint & Steel service. Flint & Steel is only available as a member benefit. Flint & Steel's open rate is above industry average, reaching decision makers across the movement.

Section President's Briefing (SPB)

This monthly publication features CCCA national office news, timely leadership resources and a look into news covering broader Christian world events. CCCA section presidents send out SPB to their sections, often posting SPB links on their section social media pages and circulating the publication throughout their section. SPB goes out the first Monday after Flint & Steel.

News from CCCA

Is the government impacting your camp?
Have you been affected by local or state government decisions that left you facing new taxes or restrictions placing your ministry at risk? Do you feel like you don't have the ability to fight for legislative changes or don't even know how to begin? Join this conversation as we learn from an advocacy expert and camp leaders engaged in a formal advocacy coalition that has impacted legislation in favor of camp ministry.

This issue of Flint & Steel is sponsored in part by:

SHARE YOUR KNOWLEDGE WITH CCCA MEMBERS

As a CCCA Business Member in good standing, you now can contribute to the Christian Camping Resource Library. We invite you to provide helpful articles that will be of benefit to our member camps. The articles must be helpful and educational, but not advertorial in nature. Your business will be recognized by the credit given as the author of the piece.

Maybe you have an expertise in a skill members need to know, or you might have tips for maintaining a camp property or running a conference center. It might be about the facilities, the grounds, programming, foodservice or any other area of operation at a camp. Use your expertise to benefit CCCA members and help build your brand.

Guidelines:

- The article must be no longer than two pages in length.
- Submit your article as a MS Word doc only.
- Use AP style formatting.
- You are responsible to edit and proof prior to submission.
- It must be submitted by email to Bryan Bailon at bbailon@ccca.org.
- The article cannot promote your business or your product(s). It must be a helpful and educational piece with the sole purpose of providing useful information for our member camps.
- Please make sure to include a short bio of the author that also includes the author's name and company's name and website, followed by "CCCA Business Member."
- There are no limits to the number of articles you may submit.
- CCCA reserves the right to decline the content submitted.

Target your direct-mail message to key decision-makers in the greater Christian camp/conference marketplace. According to the latest CCCA survey data, over 6.9 million people participate in the programs of CCCA member camps and conference centers every year. You will find that our member facilities represent a wide spectrum of purchasing needs. Christian camp/conference leaders desire and need a variety of helpful resources and tools to best serve their diverse clientele.

CCCA's physical address mailing lists are cleaned weekly. Please note: Email addresses are not provided.

Direct mailing lists are available to Business Members only. To purchase, go to www.ccca.org/go/list, and if you have questions, email Bryan Bailon, business relations manager at bbailon@ccca.org.
